GOOD NEWS

Mrs. Milch stated the Guidance Department hosted a College and Trade Fair on September 29 in the Pop Vernon Field House. Representatives of many colleges and universities, trade schools, and the branches of the military were present. A Sprinkle Party for Respect Week was held last Friday. Students and staff members were honored for showing respect to others. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes hosted Fields of Faith on Cancellieri Field last night. Representatives from many Burlington County Schools were there. An ESL Family Night was held last night to foster a stronger connection between our multilingual families and the school community. The evening included information sessions, family fun, and food. Thank you to the administrative team, the ESL teaching staff, and other teachers who attended and made it a very special evening. The E-Marketing class with Ms. Lea Lauletta held a "Fun Facts" competition. The winners were Jasir Bowens, Omaree Benjamin, Malachi McElwee, and Unique Harris. The fall teams have held Senior Nights for football, cheerleaders, band, color guard, boys' soccer, girls' soccer, and girls' volleyball to honor the veteran members of their groups. Field Hockey will hold their event next week on October 17 to honor their seniors. Riverside football players John Boston and Justin Mary have received recognition as Players of the Week this season. John, whom you will meet later, was nominated twice. Danielle Clelland, whom you will also meet, has been recognized as one of the top junior soccer players in the state of New Jersey. Today senior Niriah Fowler was honored by Edgewater Park Lieutenant John Harris in memory of his son Tyron. The "Good Feetz" Project recognizes the future leaders of tomorrow by providing them with fashionable footwear. On Saturday, October 14 from 12-2 p.m., the RHS Civil Air Patrol will be hosting local squadrons to collect data on the effects of the solar eclipse that day.
